SUPPLEMENT TO JOINT REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF AGREEMENTS

Martha J. Huber ("Huber"), Midamerica Electronics Service, Inc. ("Midamerica") and New Albany Broadcasting Co., Inc. ("NBC"), by and through liaison counsel, respectfully supplement the Joint Request for Approval of Agreements ("Joint Request") filed in the above-entitled matter on November 23, 1993. In support hereof the following is shown:

In Paragraph 6e of the Joint Request, Huber and Midamerica seek a waiver of the reporting requirement of § 73.1620 in order to relieve Martha J. Huber and Peter C.L. Boyce, of obligations to effectuate their specific integration pledges. Ms. Huber and Mr. Boyce each originally proposed to serve as a full-time general manager.

Under the settlement before the Presiding Judge, Huber and Midamerica would become equal shareholders in, and principals of, NBC, a newly-formed entity which would hold the FM authorization for Channel 234A, New Albany, Indiana. In light of such structural modification the shareholders have agreed that day-to-day station management prerogatives should be assigned to an outside general manager. He or she will be retained by NBC. Ms. Huber and Mr. Boyce, however, intend to be actively involved in the planning (technical and business) and development of the new station, and to participate on a continuing basis in station operations.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTHA J. HUBER ,

SERVICE, INC. & NEW ALBANY
